

The Times, in line with the termination of its owners, give the people of Portsmouth the best and most complete afternoon newspaper in any small city in the country, as completed arrangements for enlargement and improvement of its telegraphic service.

A contract has been closed with the Associated Press for the installation of its full leased wire service in The Times office, the new service going into effect Monday, October 5th. Hitherto we have received what is known as Pony reports, these coming over the long distance telephone wires. This has been very complete, but has of necessity been curtailed somewhat, and there has been some little delay in the transmission of important happenings of the day.

Under the contract just made we will have our own leased wire, with operator in the building, and we will be in as close touch with important events as any metropolitan paper in the country. For instance we will be on the same circuit with the Columbus Dispatch, the Cleveland afternoon papers, the Cincinnati Times-Star and other papers of that class. We will be in the front rank of the procession on telegraphic news. This will enable us to give more complete market reports, for one thing, and that will interest every business man. In fact, from whatever angle, there will be a decided improvement in our telegraphic service.

The Associated Press, whose leased wire we will put in, is the oldest organization in the country and its fame for accuracy and speed is world wide. While improving our wire service, we will not for a minute overlook our local service. With a fine staff of reporters we will continue to cover local events with the same thoroughness as in the past, a thoroughness that has made The Times unique among newspapers for the completeness of its local news service.

FRENCH FAIL TO FLANK ARMY OF GEN. VON KLUCK

FOUR DAYS BRIM FULL OF FUN PROVIDED BY THE KORN KARNIVAL

Portsmouth's Second Annual Korn Karnival, the greatest event of the year and the most pretentious exhibition ever attempted in northern Ohio, formally opens next Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock, when the Four Tornadoes, sensational aerialists and acrobats, stage their first free performance on the platform erected at the corner of Third and Market streets.

From then on until midnight Saturday night, events will happen thick and fast, insuring genuine, wholesome entertainment continuously for the thousands of visitors to the Peerless City during the week.

Trucks will march up and down through the streets of the city every hour of the four days, free attractions of merit will be staged every hour of the afternoon and evening, attractive booths, displaying the wealth of reliable merchandise handled by Portsmouth's wide-awake merchants, and the product of its diversified industries, some of it in process of manufacture, and other meritorious attractions too numerous to mention.

Portsmouth's business men have outdone themselves to provide amusement and profitable recreation for their own people and the thousands of visitors within their gates, and preparations have advanced to the point where it can be stated truthfully that the affair will be one huge success.

Every evening during the Karnival, dazzling pageants will move over the city, every one of which will be worth going miles to see.

Exhibits of farm products, live stock, poultry, fancy work, school work, fruit and other exhibits will be thrown open to the horde of Karnival visitors.

Visitors will be met with that spirit of friendliness and cordiality which has made the city of Portsmouth the most favored city in this section of the country to visit.

Athletic contests by the Boy Scouts on Saturday morning of the Karnival is another feature promised by the Karnival committee.

Everything will be free, no games of chance, but clean, wholesome amusement for the guests of Portsmouth's retail merchants, the most wide-awake and hospitable in the land.

Our Troops To Stay At Vera Cruz; Villa Attacks Hill's Army

Mexico, Oct. 2.—The battle of Nacozari began shortly before noon today. With a cavalry screen and skirmishers deployed in the van, Governor Maytorena launched his main force upon Gen. Hill's Carranza army of 1800 entrenched within the town. Hill was prepared either for assault or for flight.

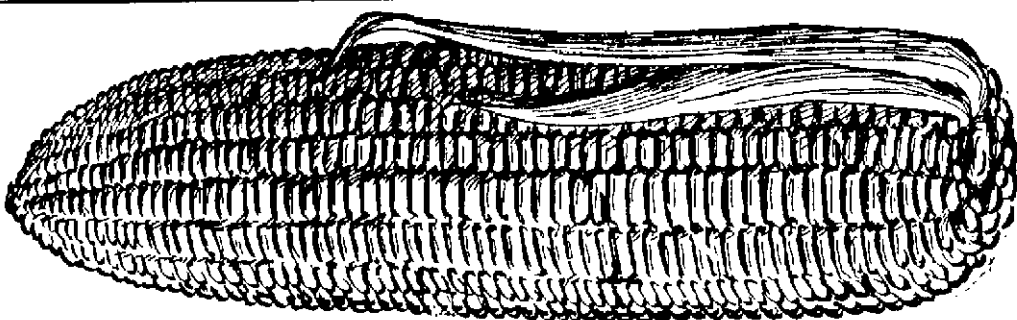

Washington, Oct. 2.—Indefinite postponement of the evacuation of Vera Cruz was announced by the department today. This was taken on account of the disturbed condition of Mexico.

While constitutional agents have expressed confidence of a settlement between Villa and Carranza, other officials are of the opinion that Carranza has no intention of stepping out and making any way for Villa. The situation became so acute that Carranza Zapata, a conference with state department officials this morning and discussed in detail the evacuation of Vera Cruz by the United States troops. Following this conference it was announced that the withdrawal of troops would not be made for some time. The United States has stood ready for some time to turn the post of Vera Cruz over to the Carranza government as soon as certain conditions were met.

Washington, Oct. 2.—The council of generals representing all elements in Mexico will convene at Aguas Calientes, Oct. 10th according to official advice received here today, with a purpose of settling all differences. It will, for the first time, bring together a full representation of Gen. Villa's adherents with those from Carranza Zapata.

PORTSMOUTH'S BIG KORN KARNIVAL

OCTOBER 7, 8, 9 AND 10, 1914

The interest manifested in the 1914 Korn Karnival gives promise that it will eclipse by far that of 1913. The purposes of the Korn Karnival are largely instructive and the intelligent manner in which the local resources will be displayed will not only result in the advertisement of Portsmouth and Scioto county, but be convincing even to thousands of local people who are not fully aware of the fact that they have here in their own reach, in their very doorways, as splendid an array of those things that enter into the making of a great and prosperous city as elsewhere. In fact the blessings of situation, in the matter of transportation, of agricultural, educational and of manufacturing, seems to have been abundantly bestowed upon this people, who express their thankfulness by taking a sensible advantage of them in entering actively and enthusiastically in their enjoyment and promotion.

The Korn Karnival has amusement features that give spice to the atmosphere surrounding the material things on display. All will add to the pleasure of your visit, and the invitation of the Korn Karnival association and the Portsmouth citizen is extended to outsiders to come and see just how things are done in the Peerless City.

FRENCH BATTLE LINE EXTENDED ALMOST TO THE BELGIAN BORDER

Paris, France, Oct. 2.—"We continue to progress on the right and left," was the utterance at military headquarters here this morning. It is known that the heavy reinforcements have arrived especially on the west where the task of breaking the armies of Gen. Von Boehm and Gen. Von Kluck.

Although figures are withheld here it is known that the French left has been strengthened by a heavy corps during the past few days and their army almost extends to the Belgian border.

Unofficial reports received here emphasize the great aid that has been given the allies by the big guns received at the front. To this fact is attributed the recent success of the French and British forces. It was announced today that two German aeroplanes made a dash toward Paris this morning, but turned and made for the German line when a single French aeroplane started in pursuit of the two German aeroplanes.

Austrian Advance Stopped In Bosnia

Paris, Oct. 2.—"After 20 days of the offensive," says a Nish, Serbia dispatch to the Havas agency, "the Austrian forces have stopped 12 miles from the Drina on the Bosnian frontier." While these forces are awaiting reinforcements before they will be able to resume the offensive, their troops at the north have been trying desperately to advance over the plains between the Drina and the Save to get at the right flank of the Serbians. All their efforts there were defeated in bloody battle.

Miss Georgia Kibbey left last night for New Maranoras, Ohio, where she will make an extended visit with friends.

Auto Hits Tree, One Killed

Hinton, W. V., Oct. 2.—John Huddleston, a prominent resident of Oak Hill, was instantly killed, Raymond Blake probably fatally injured and Jos. Cuppler slightly hurt today when an auto driven by Huddleston crashed into a tree.

CONCESSIONS TO TURKEY BY GREECE

Athens, Greece, Oct. 2.—That Greece is willing to make certain concessions to Turkey to prevent the extension of the European war to the Balkan peninsula, was indicated today by Premier Delizelos in a speech in the chamber.

He said that the question concerning the ownership of the islands which are claimed by both Turkey and Greece, has been definitely settled, that but Greece stands willing to make concessions.

ENGLAND WILL LAY MINE

London, Oct. 2.—The official information bureau announced today that the government had decided to lay mines in certain areas as a counter stroke to the German procedure.

Albanians Killed

Athens, Greece, Oct. 2.—100 Albanians were killed and many wounded when a band of 2,000 Albanians, after attacking a force of Epirote troops near Tepelen, were forced to retreat. The Epirote loss was about 20 killed.

WILSON ENDORSES COX

Washington, Oct. 2.—President Wilson wrote to Representative White of Marietta, Ohio today endorsing the administration of Governor Cox and the Democratic congressmen from Ohio.

"Thank you sincerely for sending me a copy of the legislative hand book which is being submitted to the voters of Ohio," the President wrote. "It is certainly a record of notable achievements that Gov. Cox has carried out with extraordinary spirit and success. The program of reform laid down in the platform of the party in the state, and so has illustrated once more the feeling of the best public men that the promises upon which one seeks election constitutes their mandates from the people. This record is on par with the consistent action of the Democratic members of the house of representatives from Ohio, which has constantly excited my admiration."

GERMANS STRENGTHEN BATTLE LINES; CLAIM SITUATION ASSURING

Berlin, via wireless to Sayville, N. Y., Oct. 2.—According to announcement made in Berlin today the great battle in France is still undecided. The Germans are described as hammering the French position at numerous points by their heavy artillery. The attempts of the allies to break through the German lines have been repulsed. The heaviest losses have been in the Argonne region.

The Germans continue to make steady progress. In the fighting before Antwerp the German artillery has silenced two Belgian forts. German troops captured 30 aeroplanes sent from France to Belgium.

"In general," it was stated, "the situation may be summed up as highly favorable, though neither in France nor Poland has any decisive battle been fought."

"Our positions in France are steadily being made stronger, despite the repeated attacks of the enemy on the right and left wings. Following the capture of Fresnoy, Le Grand and Roye, we drove the enemy back with heavy losses west of the Oise. He is showing persistence in his attack on the west, but the fury of these attacks is apparently diminishing, indicating that the French troops are withdrawing to the south or attempting a flanking movement."

"Positions of an strategic importance to the German troops have been evacuated by them and occupied by the enemy, but he has been unable to bring to success any effort to threaten our main positions."

"All attempts to dislodge us from the heights of the Cramonne have been repulsed. On the left end of our center our superior artillery has forced the enemy to give ground at some points where we have advanced and strengthened our entrenchments."

"At the east of the battle front we have again taken the offensive after repulsing sorties from the Meuse forts and have regained ground that the French took with heavy losses and have found them selves unable to hold. They have sacrificed large forces in this locality."

"The situation in the Vosges is unchanged, the enemy having failed to renew his attack."

"The strategic movements in the eastern theatre continues to our advantage."

"Sorties from Antwerp have been repulsed and the bombardment of the forts there continues. Effective work is being done by the imperial flying corps at all centers of the fighting."

COMPENSATION AWARDED BY THE STATE

Columbus, O., Oct. 2.—The state industrial commission today awarded Mrs. Anna Schweinhart, mother of Anna Schweinhart, a Cincinnati stenographer, who was murdered last May by Dr. O'Connell, a salesman for the L. N. Price Commission Company, a compensation totaling $1500 payable in weekly installments of $50.00 per week.

The commission held that inasmuch as the girl was shot and killed while transacting short hand notes her death came while in the discharge of her duties, she was entitled to an award by the state.

WILHITE SENTENCED

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 2.—Samuel M. Wilhite, former city comptroller, pleaded guilty today to embezzling $14,500 by appropriation of city bonds in his charge and was sentenced to from two to ten years in the penitentiary today.

Was just reading in the paper that our neighbor Maysville, has gotten the Korn Karnival fever and is thinking seriously of naming a committee to take the matter in hand and line up her huge tobacco barns and the like and show us up-river folks that we ain't the whole works. Go to it, Colonel. Here's hoping you put on a show that will make the rest of us blush.

Ohio—Fair and warmer to night and Saturday.

Kentucky—Partly cloudy to night and Saturday; probably showers.

YOU ARE INVITED TO THE PORTSMOUTH KORN KARNIVAL

On next Wednesday the second Portsmouth Korn Karnival will begin, and Portsmouth merchants and Portsmouth citizens unite in inviting all who can to come and enjoy themselves. The Korn Karnival was born of the idea to bring the farmers of community into closer union with the city, and of this union will come mutual advantages. For the farmers it will mean awakened interest in better farm products, more varied crops, and with the inevitable result of added income. For the merchants it will mean wider dissemination of the fact that in Portsmouth merchandise is sold cheaper, quality considered, than in any other city in the state, a fact that is generally conceded by the traveling men who make the city their headquarters upon the narrow margin of profit. The progressive merchants of Portsmouth have spent thousands of dollars for decorations, booths, bands, free amusements, parades, etc., which the visitors will enjoy without the expenditure of a penny. They are doing this cheerfully, knowing that all that is needed for the extension of their trade is acquaintance with their wares. So The Times in this public invitation urges all who come to Portsmouth to inspect the stores and the merchandise offered for sale, whether you buy or not. By so doing you will enjoy the good time, and will also put yourself in position to enjoy the financial advantages of close buying. Don't take our word for it, come and see for yourself.

TO ALL CITIZENS OF PORTSMOUTH

This issue of the Daily Times, printed in Korn Carnival colors and containing thirty-six pages, is a publication that will doubtless commend itself to every citizen of Portsmouth and surrounding territory for it is teeming full, not only of news, but contains valuable and authentic data concerning the new water works, as well as a detailed account of the happenings for Korn Carnival week. Not only that, but the merchants and business men of Portsmouth have used liberally of display space in order to inform the people of Portsmouth and Seaboard county as to the quality of their merchandise. Such a publication as this could not be presented to our readers were it not for the fact that Portsmouth business men are wide-awake and ever anxious to do their part in a newspaper enterprise of this nature.

The Times bespeaks for the merchants a profitable season of trade during the Korn Carnival. They deserve your patronage for you can go the limit and nowhere in all the country will you find better goods, better service, more courteous treatment or more honest prices than offered to you by the merchants of this city. In quite a number of instances the merchants are offering special inducements for their patrons during the week of the Carnival. Every one is bona-fide and should be taken advantage of. The merchants and business men of the Peerless City deserve to be boosted and you can employ your time to no better advantage than to pass out the word to your friends and acquaintances. The Times has printed quite a surplus edition of this issue and should you desire to mail copies to your friends you can secure the extra copies at this office.

Cruelty, Robbery, Carousal, Arrests, Fines—Police Court

Charged with cruelty to a horse, August Botz, a foreigner, was arraigned in police court Friday morning, convicted, and fined $50 and costs. The complainant was A. J. Carter, of this

APPETITE FOLLOWS GOOD DIGESTION

Nearly everyone indulges their appetite and the digestive organs are abused, resulting in a congestion of poisonous waste that clogs the bowels and causes much misery and distress.

The most effective remedy to correct this condition is the combination of simple, laxative herbs with pepsin, known as Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. This is a natural, pleasant-tasting remedy, gentle yet positive in action, and quickly relieves indigestion, constipation, sick headache, belching, etc. Drug stores sell Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at fifty cents and one dollar a bottle, and in thousands of homes it is the indispensable family remedy. For a free trial bottle, write Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 431 Washington Street, Monticello, Ill.

The evidence showed that early in August Botz hired the horse to drive over the county with an illegal cream wagon. After driving the animal for two days so unmercifully that at the end of that time it was scarcely able to walk, Botz, it is claimed, abandoned it in the cotton woods in the West End, where it was found by the owner the following morning.

In the meantime Botz had gone to Ashland, Ky., and did not return here until Thursday when he was apprehended by Officer Cooper. He admitted having left the horse in the cotton woods, but denied having mistreated it. As Botz is without funds, he will likely languish in the city prison for several days.

Four negroes were held in the city prison Thursday night on suspicion of having robbed Arthur Johnson, also colored, of $25 Thursday evening. James Brown, whom the victim alleged took the money, was found guilty by the mayor, and given the alternative of returning the full amount stolen or going to jail. Three of his friends, Milan Brown, John Rucker and William Thornhill, were also convicted of conspiracy in the crime, and will be held until the money is returned, although Johnson repeatedly told the mayor that they had nothing to do with the robbery.

All of the accused negroes have been working on the government dam west of the city, and came to the city to take in the circus Friday.

Charles Spaulding, a North End negro, went on the war path Thursday evening, according to Arthur Berry, colored barber, of Waller street, who claims that he entered his place armed with a club and proceeded to run everybody out. Officers Moore and Flowers took him in custody, and he was fined $5 in police court Friday morning.

Alvin Johnson, a local negro, had appropriated a rifle valued at $10 which he had entrusted with him on August 15. Johnson, also colored, of last, A. B. Diner caused a warrant to be sworn out against him. Johnson was arrested, and arraigned before the mayor Friday morning. After admitting that he had had the rifle, Johnson was given ten days in which to restore it to the rightful owner or face prosecution.

James Funk, arrested for drunkenness Thursday, and William Whiting, caught loitering in the N. & W. yards Thursday night, were each fined $5 in police court Friday morning by the mayor.

STELL M'GRAW ADOPTED

The adoption of Stella Alberta McGraw, 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert McGraw, by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur McGraw, of this city, was made legal in probate court Friday morning. Consent of the father was given before the letters of adoption were issued.

At the regular meeting of the lodge, K. of P., Thursday evening, a signal honor was conferred upon Felix Haas, Chillicothe street clothier, who is past chairman of the lodge and one of its most active members. In recognition of the fact that he has been a member of the lodge continuously for twenty-five years, he was presented with a gold medal, upon which is engraved his name and record of his membership. Few members of the lodge ever receive a medal of that kind, since it requires 25 years of continuous membership to earn one.

He was just returned from a 27-day trip down into Kentucky and was charged with what he supposed was a harmless but which proved to be a deadly poison. He was arraigned before the mayor and committed to the city prison.

He was found to be a peddler of poisonous toadstools and mushrooms.

Auto Parade A Feature Of The Y. W. C. A. Campaign

For the purpose of awakening the interest of the general public to the fact that a membership campaign for the Y. W. C. A. was being waged in the city, 101 loyal supporters of the institution paraded the principal streets of the city Thursday evening in automobiles, which had been kindly loaned for that purpose by the owners.

Twenty machines were in line, all bearing "Y. W. C. A." banners, and each of them carrying a box of relieving women and girls, all boosting the Y. W. C. A. membership campaign. They were armed with horns, megaphones and noise-making devices of all kinds, and succeeded in demonstrating to the public that a parade was being held.

The first car bore a large banner on which was inscribed "Supporters of the Y. W. C. A. Membership Campaign." The parade started at the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium hall at Second and Court streets, at the conclusion of a big supper which had been arranged for the members of the soliciting committee and the Y. W. C. A. boosters. Prior to the parade a short business session was held, during which the details of the campaign were discussed at some length. Addresses were made by Miss Hennings, the secretary, and Miss Edna Strick, the chairman of the campaign committee.

During the business session, it was announced that the returns of the committees were coming in slowly and that better results would have to be forthcoming during the closing days of the campaign. If the Y. W. C. A. is to continue its existence in this city, hope was expressed that the members of the committee would get busy at once and make a good showing from now on.

The campaign promoters desire to express their appreciation to the automobile owners who donated the use of their machines, through the Times. They included Irving Drew, George M. Appel, George Goshman, W. W. Gates, Jr., W. C. Williams, J. E. Williams, Pearl, Mark and Roger Selig, Lawrence Newberger, J. E. McCormick, Adam Seel, Thomas K. Brushart, Man Jordan, William Sellars, Charles Hauck.

John Moeller, Herman Pick and Miss Ruth Thompson. A vote of thanks was also extended to the committee of women who arranged and served the supper, consisting of Mrs. Pearl Selig, chairman; Mrs. John E. Williams, Mrs. W. C. Williams, Mrs. A. T. B. Somerville, Miss Alice Blake, Miss Play Hammond, Mrs. William Briggs and Miss Edna Marting.

Forced To Cough Up

For about fifty-five minutes Friday morning it looked as if Robinson's Show wouldn't show. During that time the business agent of the circus was making a determined effort to avoid paying the license of $125, provided by the city ordinance. In his stand he was supported by the mayor and the chief of police, the former claiming that $100 was enough to pay.

The city ordinance, however, specifically provides that $100 must be collected as the license for the circus proper, and $25 additional if a sideshow or museum is operated, and the city auditor, under a ruling of the city collector, insisted upon the full amount, as the ordinance failed to provide for any discretionary attitude on the part of the mayor or himself. The $125 was paid.

AIRSHIP DROPS BOMB ON ANTWERP

Antwerp, Oct. 2.—Zeppelin airships are co-operating with the German artillery in the attack on Antwerp. An airship flew over the city early today and succeeded in dropping two bombs, but it was driven away before it could drop more. A number of soldiers were wounded by the second bomb, but the first did no damage. The bombardment of southern Antwerp forts by the Germans continues night and day, but the fury of their infantry attacks upon the Belgian troops has lessened as the result of a severe check they received near Ft. Wavre. It is reported that in the fighting there the Germans lost 8,000 in killed alone.

The fire of the German siege guns upon the Antwerp forts is being directed from two large balloons anchored behind their lines. Belgian aviators have attempted three times to approach these balloons, but each time the aeroplane has been met with a sharp fire and forced to return to Antwerp.

JAPS BOMBARD GERMAN FORTS

Tokio, Japan, Oct. 2.—Creeping close to Tsing-Tan a flotilla of Japanese destroyers has destroyed the German barracks there and is reported to be raging within the fortifications. The Japanese fleet continues to bombard the fortress which is also being shelled by the British and Japanese batteries from the land side.

One of the small magazines was blown up last night by a bomb dropped from a Japanese hydroplane. The American consul has been trying to induce the German governor to surrender on the grounds of humanity. The governor says he has been instructed by the German government to hold out to the last and he is determined to do so.

WAR BULLETINS

London, Eng., Oct. 2.—The following dispatch dated Wednesday was received today by the Exchange Telegraph Co. from Rheims:

"Rheims was the scene of a fierce artillery duel this morning. During the bombardment, the American consul William Bardel had a narrow escape. A shell wrecked half of his residence over which the stars and stripes were flying.

(By Franklin Morricks, International News Service Correspondent.)
Paris, Oct. 2.—With reinforcements which were shifted to his army from the end of the battle line, General Von Kluck, commander of the German right flank, has been making violent efforts for the past 48 hours to pierce the left wing of the allies and cut off the French troops north of the Somme from the balance of the army.

London, Oct. 2.—In a dispatch from Amsterdam the correspondent of the Central News says: "The Russian troops have continued to repulse the enemy from the boundary of the government of Suwalki and Lomza. The engagement has been very fierce west of Symon. An attack by the Russian cavalry against the German vanguard in front of Andrew, and marching on Kielce, was crowned with great success. The German infantry was caught unawares and is retreating in disorder, pursued by the Russian cavalry.

Petrograd, Oct. 2.—The general staff has given out the following communication: "The Russian troops have continued to repulse the enemy from the boundary of the government of Suwalki and Lomza. The engagement has been very fierce west of Symon. An attack by the Russian cavalry against the German vanguard in front of Andrew, and marching on Kielce, was crowned with great success. The German infantry was caught unawares and is retreating in disorder, pursued by the Russian cavalry.

Shooting Is Bad

Amsterdam, Oct. 2.—German marksmanship at Antwerp is remarkably bad," says the Antwerp correspondent of the Hanzelblad. "They have tried in vain to silence the forts. The net result is that three inhabitants were struck by shells. The southern forts are active and inflicting heavy losses on the Germans."

ALLIES' FLEET ATTACKS POLA

Rome, Oct. 2.—According to a Brindisi dispatch to the Corriere della Sera, the Anglo-French fleet in the Adriatic has opened an attack on Pola, Austria's great naval base. The dispatch says that French guns are bombarding the Cattaro forts and that there is a further need of the allies fleet off Cattaro.

Recent dispatches have stated that the entire Austrian fleet have concentrated at Pola, which is headquarters of the Austrian admiralty and is strongly fortified. 300,000 troops have been assembled there within the last 6 weeks to assist in the defense of the forts.

Italy Establishes Rigid Censorship

New York, Oct. 2.—An indication that Italy intends to take a hand in the new censorship and possibly an indication that her expected participation in the European war will not much longer be delayed, was contained in a cablegram received here today. "The Italian government, referring to the articles of the international convention which empower a state under certain circumstances to stop the transmission of telegraphic reports, gives notice that it reserves the right to stop any cable without notice and that no claim doing so can be collected."

FRENCH WAR STATEMENT

Paris, Oct. 2.—An official statement issued by the war office this afternoon says:

"On our left wing the battle continues with terrible fighting. Notably in the region of Roye, Sarrebourg was destroyed. This gave concentrated important reinforcements to the German army to the north. The action extends from Reims to Sarrebourg and more towards the north, to escape being caught between two fires. Another attempt by the Austrians to cross the Save has been repulsed."

Upon the Meuse the Germans attempted at night to throw a bridge across the river near St. Mihiel. The bridge was destroyed by our guns. In the Woëvre district our offensive continues and progresses step by step into the region between Arras, Douai and St. Mihiel. On the remainder of the front there have been attempts only partial success here and there."

SUBSTITUTE IN WAR TAX

Washington, Oct. 2.—Elimination of the proposed tax of $200 per $1000 on bank capital and surplus in the war revenue bill as it passed the house and substituting a stamp tax of 2c on each check, draft and other commercial paper not included in the original bill, was recommended today by the Democratic senators working on that session. All Democrats of the senate finance committee met today to consider the bill. Chairman Simmons said an effort would be made to agree upon all changes by tonight.

VLASENITZA CAPTURED

Nish, Serbia, Oct. 2.—The capture of Vlasenitza, northeast of Belgrade, was announced by the Serbian government today. This gave concentrated important reinforcements to the German army to the north. The action extends from Reims to Sarrebourg and more towards the north, to escape being caught between two fires. Another attempt by the Austrians to cross the Save has been repulsed."

EX-SPEAKER HOLDING OWN

A HEAVY REGISTRATION

The first day's registration figures offer conclusive proof that a heavy vote is going to be cast in the gubernatorial and the wet and dry election in November. There are 29 precincts in the city and they showed an averaged registration of 15, the figures for the day being 435. This is the heaviest ever known for the first day's registration.

All Police On Duty

On account of it being election day, the entire police force was on duty all day Friday. The majority of the officers were assigned to duty in the downtown district while the parade was going on, and shifted to the show grounds during the afternoon. At press time Friday afternoon, there had been no reports of robberies or disorder.

Upon the request of the Selby Shoe company, John Tibben has been sworn in by the mayor as a special night policeman to guard the company's property.

SAXON $395

Objection to noise has kept many people from buying a light car. The SAXON is a quiet-running, non-rattling car. The fenders are of the full oval model, non-rattling type. The Continental motor is quiet-running and practically free from vibration. The gears are quiet in operation and do not roar on low speed. The SAXON is the smoothest running light car on the market. Arrange for a demonstration.

Picking Up Money

Using "these columns" is pretty much like picking up money on the streets. Walking is small effort, you wear out a little leather, the money you pick up is clear gain, if you can't find the owner.

So it is little effort to telephone your "want" to this paper; your carrier will collect the little cost—only 5 cents a word each insertion—and the little ad is altogether likely to get for you what you want.

The Movies

Features At The Lyric
Mary Pickford in that wonderfully fascinating five reel production "Hearts Adrift" will be shown again at the Lyric theatre today for one day only at a ten cent admission for afternoon and evening. This superb picture broke all records at the Lyric when it was here before and so many people have asked to see it again that Manager Mack decided to bring it back and secured it at a reasonable price, which accounts for the small admission. The afternoon shows will start at 1, 2, 3 and 4 o'clock and souvenir photos of Little Mary will be given away to the early comers as long as they last, the supply is limited, so come early.

Kathryn Williams is the star on the bill today in a splendid dramatic feature called "When A Woman Laughs," and you can rest assured that you are going to see something good in this picture. It is one of the best of the season.

Arthur Johnson and Lottie Peacock are coming Saturday in "Lord Cecil Intervenes." This is the first of a series of fifteen stories called "The Beloved Adventure." One will be shown every Saturday and each story is complete in itself. No continuous features in connection with them. They are published in book form—15 stories in one book—this book you can buy at the book stores or at the Lyric box office for 25 cents. They are clever and the pictures are something decidedly above the average.

European War and "Korn"
Karnival at Columbia Tonight.

The European war and the "Korn Karnival" are the two biggest things in the minds of Portsmouth people at this time. The Hearst Solg Weekly of current events this week has some wonderful pictures of the German invasion of Belgium, besides 25 views with the German forces in Belgium from the International News Service will be shown. To freshen your minds about the "Korn Karnival," come to see the "Columbia this evening and see how you looked at the Karnival last year, for we are going to show the pictures taken during the big show last fall.

Besides all this, "The Attorney's Decision," a beautiful two-reel special Lubin drama featuring "Rosemary Thelby" (date of the Vitaphone company) will be shown, making one of the most interesting programs ever offered at the popular Columbia.

THEATRICAL

The New Sun.
P. R. Reus company of misfits head the bill at the New Sun theatre for the last half of this week.

Misfit Co. is the only name that could be applied to this live wire bunch of fun makers. You laugh when you see them and you laugh when you move they make. They are funny from the smallest to the largest. From the shortest to the tallest. Just one thing after another but it is all fun.

Short and Edwards present a clever musical act with good jokes and laughable sayings and a number of splendid musical selections. Their work won rounds of applause.

Mable Morton is a clever and very pleasing little lady. Her quick change catchy songs made an instant hit.

Zenita the magician proves without a doubt that the hands are quicker than the eye. His work is good and rounds out this clever bill, making it a well-balanced show.

A War-Proof Investment

Many kinds of bonds and securities have been affected by the European war and declined seriously in dividends and values.

There is fortunately one sort of investment that the general disarranged business conditions have not touched and that is a savings account in our bank. The principal is always adding to the value thereof.

Nothing in fact so much shows the wisdom of having a savings account as a war. It provides for the unforeseen that such contingencies bring, it gives you something to fall back on, an anchor in time of stress.

There is no more opportune time to start a savings account than right now. If you can make up your mind to put aside something regularly under present conditions you can put aside more when world wide conditions get back to normal.

We'll start you with as little as a dollar and compound interest thereon three times a year.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, vexes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Miss Wise—I have entered my two year old boy in the baby buggy parade and have a three months old baby would like to put in the baby show. Would I be allowed to enter both children?

PROUD MOTHER.

Yes, Mr. Alan Jordan informs me that one can enter a half dozen babies if they have that many under three years of age.

Dear Dolly—I have a dog that is covered with fleas and as I can't get rid of them, I would like to know if I can train them? I have often heard of trained fleas, and if this can be done kindly inform me how to do it, or where I can have it done.

BILLY.

You might take 'em out and load 'em on an S. & W. train. That's the only way I know of to 'train' them. However, P. T. Barnum and other showmen have demonstrated the fact that fleas may be trained to perform feats that to the uninitiated are unbelievable. I do not know whether such 'troups' are upon exhibition now or not.

Dear Dolly—I have a little girl 15. She likes her dresses long and I don't. Please advise me how long she should wear her dresses and how she should wear her hair.

A MOTHER.

Long dresses have gone out of fashion. Most of the dresses for grown ups are now made from four to six inches from the ground. About the shoe tops is long enough for a 15-year old girl to wear her dresses, if she is tall of her age, if not she could wear them a little shorter. She could wear her hair in a curl or in one braid and tied half way down with a big ribbon bow.

Dear Dolly—Which is correct, in speaking of a household or culinary formula, recipe or receipt? I see both are used to a great extent.

DOMESTIC SCIENCE PUPIL.

"Recipe" may mean so many things, that "recipe" is gaining favor among makers of household manuals. For example, I am in receipt of a letter, I send a receipt for money paid to me, etc. Whereas since by universal consent "prescription" has taken the place of receipts in the pharmacy, recipe has come to stand for only one thing—a formula for the preparations of food for the table or the concoction of something else for domestic use. It is pronounced as if spelled "ressi-pee."

Dear Miss Wise—I am troubled with dandruff and have a very dry scalp. Can you suggest some harmless remedy for this trouble?

ETHEL.

The application of castor oil every night is successful in most cases. Here is another treatment: To an ounce of sulphur add a quart of soft water and during intervals of several days agitate the mixture repeatedly. After the sulphur has settled to the bottom of the receptacle use the clear liquid. Saturate the head with it every morning and in a few weeks every trace of the dandruff will have disappeared. The hair will become soft and glossy, and there will be no return of the old trouble. This remedy, however, will darken light hair.

Dear Miss Wise—Is it true that it rains frogs and pollywogs, if so what is the cause of this?

SALLY ANN.

Toads and tadpoles are sometimes caught up from the earth by a whirlpool of water, and hurled to the earth by a cloud. I suspect, however, that the tales of showers of frogs may have originated in the fact that the creatures emerge from their holes in great numbers after a heavy rain which has softened the upper strata, and attracted them into the outer air. One often sees dozens of toads hopping about after a warm spring shower. I do not believe it ever rains down frogs.

Dear Miss Wise, I am a girl twenty-one years old and am very unhappy. I went with a fellow eighteen months and I loved him. He seemed to be getting tired of me. He didn't pay much attention to me like he used to. I quit going with him on this account as I am too independent to go with a fellow that neglects me. He was seven months ago. He never helped me out of my trouble you will see a place in my heart that will last forever. I am one of those heartbroken wives that has a drunkard for a husband. Oh,

Dear Miss Wise—If you can help me out of my trouble you will see a place in my heart that will last forever. I am one of those heartbroken wives that has a drunkard for a husband. Oh, how he abuses me, he is so cruel and wicked, I can't describe it with pencil and paper. He doesn't try to work and provide for me and his two sweet little children. All he thinks about is the degraded, debauched saloon. He spends all of his time in them, what time he is not working. I try so hard to make home sweet and pleasant for him. I always have his meals ready when he comes home and always have kind words to speak to him, and in return he curses me, such vile indecent talk before my little children. It almost drives me insane. Please Miss Wise if you know of any one that would keep my two children with me and be happy, and where I can teach them to be good.

WITHOUT A FRIEND.

If you can induce him to quit associating with bad company half your task will be accomplished. When he is sober and in good temper ask him if he wants you to leave him. Talk quietly with him and try to show him how impossible it is for a good woman to respect a drunkard—a man who can't control himself enough to live as a man should. Ask him if there is anything you can do to help him keep sober. Perhaps he would like to have you go with him when he goes down street, and hold him back from temptation. Perhaps if he could invite his friends to his house and play cards or smoke once or twice a week, while you serve them with hot coffee and sandwiches, he would not want to drink. Just suggest these things to him, and see what he says. Ask him if he cares enough for you and the children to stop drinking. I have been told that the following is of benefit to whiskey drinkers, but I do not know of any one who has tried it. It can be given in any liquid substance and is absolutely harmless. It is said to stop the craving: Five grains of sulphate of iron, 10 grains magnesia, and one dram of spirits of nutmeg. Mix and dissolve in half pint of lukewarm water. Let it stand until settled, which will be two or three days. Dose: One teaspoonful two or three times a day is sufficient. Of course if he continues to abuse you shamefully, better consult the humane authorities. Would like to talk to you personally, if you could arrange to come down to this office some time.

MINTA WILHELM, Sec'y.

Mrs. W. G. Williams' handsome home on Gallia avenue was the scene of the first of a series of sewing parties this afternoon, when fifty-five women enjoyed the afternoon with their fancy-work. The color scheme was yellow, green and white, in keeping with the Korn Carnival season. Miss Mary Cook, of Hopewell, Ky., guest of Mrs. James Patterson, was the only out of town guest. At the end of the delightful afternoon Mrs. Williams served dairy refreshments.

All Saints Ladies Aid Society will have a rest and check room at their Korn Carnival lunch room, on Chillicothe street, next to the Salvage store, near Third.

The New Hope class of the First Baptist church thoroughly enjoyed the banquet given by the last half of the class last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Sowers, on Lincoln Hill, where sixty members were served to a delicious three-course luncheon, which was daintily served on lap boards. The decorations were in the class colors, purple and gold, golden rod and marigolds being the flowers used in the pretty adornments. The place cards were hand painted in sketches and tied in purple and gold ribbons. An interesting program followed the banquet, as follows:

STOMACH UPSET?
Get At the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking pills, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their normal functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

If you have a bad taste in your mouth, tongue coated, appetite poor, lax, don't eat, feeling nervous or uneasy, troubled with indigestion, you should take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Many Pretty Infants Will Ride In Baby Buggy Parade

ENTRY CARD FOR BABY PARADE.

Address .....

That Baby Buggy Parade is going to be one of the most scintillating features of the Korn Carnival. It is going to be the largest kind of a success. It will add a touch of novelty to the Carnival that is sure to be widely and favorably commented upon. More than a sufficient number of entries are already in to make it an unqualified success.

The juvenile pageant will be headed by the River City band and as it passes over the principal streets the dimpled little contestants are sure to be applauded on all along the line. They will have the Korn Carnival spirit inculcated into them at the proper age.

An added feature was announced Friday. To each sweet-faced contestant a silver drinking cup with a stork engraved on it will be handed to them by Otto Zordtner & Bro. As they pass this firm's place of business each baby will be given one of these beautiful cups.

The pretty baby show will take place at the Washington Hotel, Market street side, on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock. The Baby Buggy Parade will start at 2 o'clock from the Lower Market Square. It will come East on Second to Chillicothe, north on Chillicothe, passing the reviewing stand and then to Sixth street. Then it will counter-march on Chillicothe street, so that each contestant can see all of the other buggies. Special arrangements will be made with the mayor to have the streets cleared for this eventful affair.

The following additional entries were handed into Alan Jordan, chairman of this committee, Friday:

Gordon Soister, Jake Soister, father.
Marguerite Cecilia Burling and Margaret Marie Burling. First twins entered. Edward Burling is father.

Edward Mitchell Zucker, Louis A. Zucker father.
Mildred Bernice Woodrum, John Woodrum father.
Sarah Mildred White, Benjamin D. White, father.

YOU CAN SEE BIGGEST CORN FIELD IN THE WORLD FROM WEST END POINT

Do you want to see one of the biggest corn fields in the world? The opportunity is right here before you and visitors to the Korn Carnival should not fail to avail themselves of it.

Rather pretensions claim but no idle boast at that, as a visit to the West End will soon convince the most skeptical.

One need but stand at the head of Market street or at the Point and gaze up the valley that extends northward from Portsmouth and realize why the Seaside Valley has become famous as a corn producing section.

As far as the naked eye can see there stretch out field upon field of the finest corn to be found anywhere. This year's crop being particularly excellent. One solid mass of corn for a distance of one hundred miles and at some points from two to three miles wide, and as one grain dealer put it, "the beauty of it is that it is of good quality and will mature early."

The periodical freshets are what make the bottom land the fine corn ground that they are. The overflows of the winter always leave a sediment which together with the leaves and good ground that are washed into the lands make a good rich soil of from four to five feet deep and which is as good as the bottom as on the surface. The soil is kept rich by the moisture drawn from the river and never wears out like all land. It does not require more than one third of the amount of rain needed by upland lands and bottom land owners are more concerned about keeping water away than wishing for it. Good crops have been raised even in times of drought. The average yield per acre at this end of the valley is 75 bushels while in spots it is nothing unusual to raise 100 bushels per acre and it has frequently happened that some fields yielded 120 bushels per acre. The bottoms have been producing corn ever since the days of the Indians through during that the valley was heavily wooded, pioneer settlers clearing the lands as they saw fit until today it is one unbroken open stretch of corn fields, from hill to hill.

The low bottom corn in this vicinity is used exclusively at home while further up the valley the crops are shipped to the large grain markets of the country.

Onimet Stands Alone

In 1907, Onimet, a small town in the state of New York, was the scene of a remarkable event. The town, which had a population of only 100 people, was the site of a great battle. The story is told in a book by a local resident, who describes the events in detail. The book is a valuable addition to the history of the region.

BOYS ARE IN FINE SHAPE

The Portsmouth High School football team enjoyed a splendid practice Thursday night. The boys are full of the old pep and are expected to defeat Huntington at Huntington Saturday. "My boys are working hard to cop a victory in that city and wipe out last year's defeat," said Coach Hart Friday.

Boston Fan Bets $1,000 On Braves

Boston, Oct. 2.—Henry Kolker, rabid Brave fan, Friday bet $1,000 even money that the Boston club would beat the Athletics in their coming series.

Kolker was able to distinguish the colors in the old flag before and after making the bet, which must be listed with these so-called rational but foolish bets.

Chicago Holds Title

Chicago, Oct. 2.—The Chicago Cubs have won the National League pennant for the fourth time in five years. They defeated the St. Louis Cardinals in the final game of the season.

The Cubs' victory was a surprise to many fans, as they had been considered underdogs throughout the season. Their manager, Joe Jackson, led the team to a remarkable comeback.

The Cubs' success was due to a combination of factors, including strong pitching and timely hitting. They finished the season with a record of 90 wins and 63 losses.

The Cubs' victory was a historic moment for the franchise, as it marked their first pennant win since 1907. They will now represent the National League in the World Series.

Bostons Known As 'Miracle Men'

When the Boston Red Sox won the American League pennant, they were known as the "Miracle Men." This was due to their incredible comeback from a 3-0 deficit in the final game of the season.

The Red Sox' victory was a historic moment for the franchise, as it marked their first pennant win since 1918. They will now represent the American League in the World Series.

Rich In Color And Beauty Fraternal Parade Will Be Imposing Spectacle

Final arrangements for the Korn Karnival Parade, next Thursday evening were perfected Thursday evening at a meeting in the Masonic Temple attended by Grand Marshal James W. Smith, members of the parade committee, and the men selected by the grand marshal as aides.

It will be remembered that last year the Fraternal parade was the big feature of the Karnival, and from all indications, the pageant this year will far overshadow the one of last year. Preparations for it required a wealth of time and thought, but the details have all been arranged, and nothing remains now but the accurate carrying out of the plan to make the parade one huge success, an event long to be remembered by those who view it.

The parade this year will comprise six divisions, all of which will mobilize in the vicinity of Second and Market streets, from 7:30 o'clock. The first division will assemble at the corner of Second and Market, while the other five divisions will fall in behind, the line extending west to Jefferson, north on Jefferson to Third, east on Third to Market, north on Market to Fifth and east on Fifth as far as is necessary.

Special trains from Chillicothe and Ironton will arrive in the city around 7 o'clock, and Grand Marshal Smith has detailed six of his aides, mounted, to meet the trains at the O. & W. depot, and escort them to the mobilization point of the parade. These marchers will constitute the fifth and sixth divisions of the parade, and will fall in at Fifth and Market streets just as the parade starts. A reception committee from the Korn Kar-nival committee will also meet the trains and march with the visitors in the parade.

Each division will be headed by a brass band, while two drum corps will also disperse martial music, furnishing plenty of music to keep the thousands of marchers entertained during the entire parade.

Ten of the fraternal orders will enter floats in the parade, and they will furnish a feature in themselves that is seldom seen anywhere. Every float is hot after the prize for the best float, and this insures attractive and original designs by local artists in that line of work. Each float will follow the members of the lodge which entered it in the parade.

Considerable discussion has been had regarding the line of march for the big parade, and the following has been decided upon as the most satisfactory, all points being considered:

The parade will start from Second and Market streets, and will move east on Second to Chillicothe, north on Chillicothe to Gallia, east on Gallia to Lincoln, counter march at Lincoln, west on Gallia to Findlay, north on Findlay to Eighth, west on Eighth to Chillicothe, and south on Chillicothe to Second, where it will disband.

At Sixth and Findlay streets, the floats will drop out of the parade, and head west on Sixth street, forming a float division, which will fall in behind the parade at Sixth and Chillicothe streets, and continue to the disbanding point as a float division.

The reviewing stand will be located at the west end of the government esplanade, and will be occupied by members of the Korn Kar-nival committee, the officers, judges, and their families. The parade will pass the reviewing stand twice, the first time when it turns east on Gallia street and the second time when it is moving south on Chillicothe street to the disbanding point.

By counter-marching on Gallia street, an opportunity will be given every marcher in the parade to view it from the beginning to the end, a feature that had to be cared for if the parade was to prove the gigantic success that has been hoped for. A large number would have remained out of the parade if by marching it meant that they could not have seen it. That is why it was found necessary to go as far east on Gallia street as Lincoln street.

Later, announcements will be made public of the exact spots where the different fraternal societies will mobilize, but by noting the position in the parade of the different bodies, the members can obtain some idea about where their respective lodges will form in line.

Grand Marshal Smith Friday morning announced the names of the members of his staff, the positions assigned the different bodies in the parade, and the divisions as follows:

YOUR SICK CHILD IS CONSTIPATED! LOOK AT TONGME

No matter what ails your child, a gentle, thorough laxative should always be the first treatment given.

If your little one is out-of-sorts, half-sick, isn't resting, eating and acting naturally—look. Mother! see if tongue is coated. This is a sure sign that it's little stomach liver and bowels are clogged with waste. When cross, irritable, feverish, stomach sour, breath bad or has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, sore throat, full of cold, give a tea-spoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated poison, undigested food and sour bile gently moves out of its little bowels without griping, and you have a well, playful child again.

Mothers can rest easy after giving this harmless "fruit laxative," because it never fails to cleanse the little one's liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach and they dearly love its pleasant taste. Full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown ups printed on each bottle.

Beware of counterfeit fig syrups. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

PORTSMOUTH'S NEW WATERWORKS COMPLETED; MARKS BEGINNING OF NEW ERA FOR THE PEERLESS

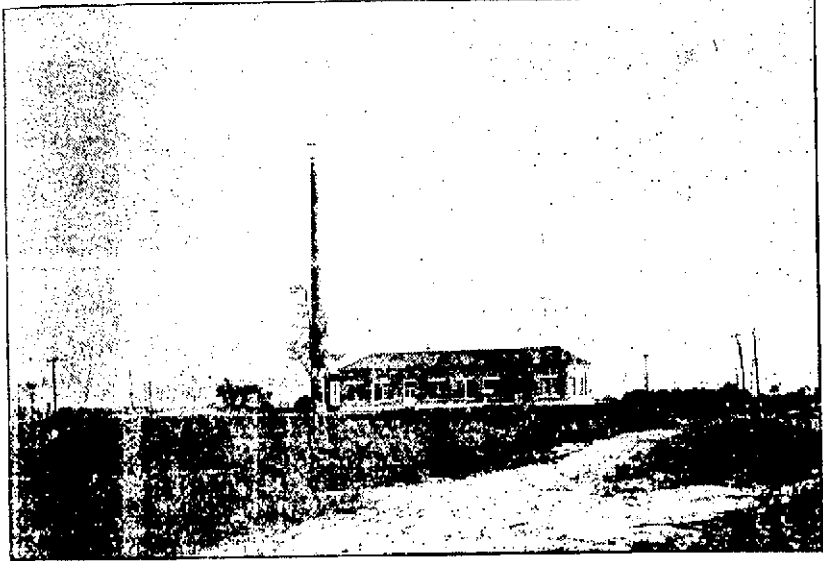

With the completion of the new Portsmouth waterworks, Portsmouth has secured the last up-to-date public utility needed to put her in the "class without reproach" as far as cities are concerned. No one has ever denied that the old waterworks system was obsolete and an undoubted drawback to the progress of the city, as heads of families too often refused to come here because they feared "that muddy water." At that, however, Portsmouth has remained free from any serious epidemic of disease, and now with water purified before it reaches the mains, its citizens should enjoy unprecedented health.

The building of the new waterworks is due to a strong public sentiment that has existed for years, and was shown conclusively when the plan to bond the city was put to vote. After months of delay, necessitated by a desire to secure the very best possible system for the city, it remained for Fred N. Tynes, newly elected mayor of the city and his co-officials to take the reins in their grasp, to decide on the system that is giving such good satisfaction in Cincinnati, to let the contracts, and to see the project pushed to near-completion. While the varying fortunes of politics have relegated Mr. Tynes to private life, no one, regardless of politics wishes to withhold from him and his associates the credit due for pure water. It is a project in which politics plays no part, which has to do with the very existence of the city.

The Times joins with all other citizens also in giving credit to the first commission, composed of George D. Selby, chairman; George Krieger, George M. Appel, Oscar Newman, John E. Williams and Frank L. Marting, all of whom spent so much time and energy in paving the way; to the city administration that started and almost completed the project; to the present administration, which has carefully checked up the work, and last, but not least to the loyal citizens of the city, who have sturdily stood behind this important project, ever ready to hold up the hands of those at the helm, for after all the coming of any great civic improvement depends most of all upon the sentiment of the citizens themselves.

The completion of the new plant marks the beginning of the new era for Portsmouth.

THE PUMPING STATION AS SEEN FROM THE FILTRATION PLANT

the present generation has passed out of this life, the same building will be adequate for the needs of the city which shall be served by it. It is set upon a solid concrete foundation, is light and airy, and of sufficient height to answer every demand to which it shall be put.

Not a single feature that goes to make up a modern pumping station has been overlooked in the equipment of this important department of a plant of that kind. Labor-saving devices of every known variety are included among that equipment. Practically everything in its operation will be done by machinery, manual labor being avoided at every turn whenever possible.

Big Well Is 75 Feet Deep.

In the extreme west end, which is circular in shape, isolated in the deep, dry well 75 feet deep, at the top of which are the two powerful centrifugal pumps, the power from which will draw the water from the middle of the channel of the Ohio river through the tunnel which connects the station with the main channel and up through the mains which lead from the pumping station into the six large settling basins located on the north side of the New Boston-Schotenville Pike, opposite the filtration plant.

Have Capacity of 8,000,000 Gallons.

Two large mains are employed to convey the water into the basins, the daily capacity of which will be 8,000,000 gallons, 4,000,000 for each pump.

To operate the centrifugal pumps, it is necessary to extend the equipment and attachments to the very bottom of the deep well in which at intervals of eight feet each, are provided galleries to enable the employees to make the necessary adjustments and repairs from time to time. Contrary to the opinion of many, water will never be pumped into this well, since the pumps have been in position, but they are gradually becoming eroded and the proper adjustments made.

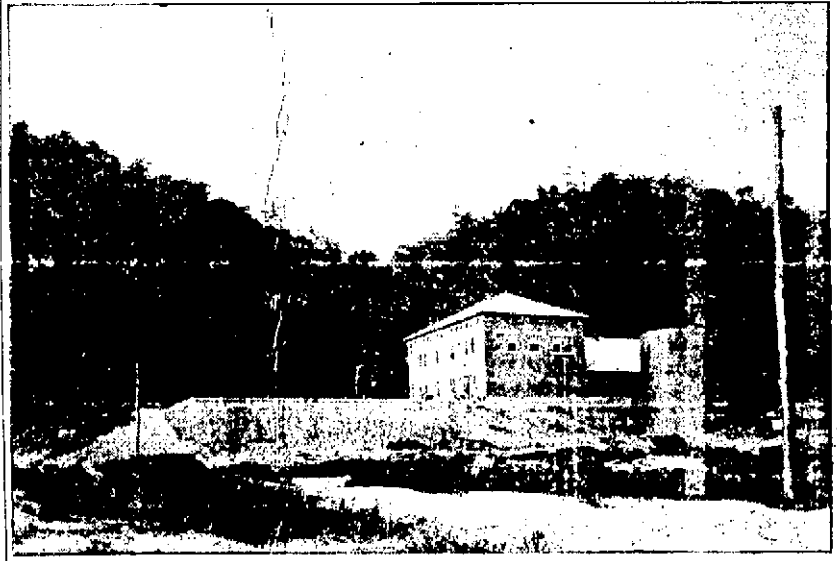

At the left of the centrifugal pumps are located the two high force pumps, which force the water from the filtration plant to the large storage reservoir on the hill. These two pumps are among the largest ever constructed, and have tremendous power. They are calculated to be kept in constant operation. Every known improvement is included in the arrangement of these two immense pumps, guaranteed to last for years.

Have Provided For Future.

Enough space has been provided to enable the city, at some distant time, to double the pumping capacity, space having been left for two additional centrifugal pumps and two force pumps.

All of the pumping machinery was sold and installed by the John H. McDowall company of Cincinnati, expert workmen of

THE FILTERING PLANT. NOTE THE PRETTY VIEW

A VIEW OF THE HUGE MAIN PUMPS

By E. W. GABLEMAN.

Accompanied by L. C. Watson, chief assistant engineer to J. F. Witmer, of Buffalo, consulting engineer who designed and supervised the construction of Portsmouth's new $500,000 water works plant, a Times man made a tour of the new plant, which is now complete.

Every department of the big institution which covers a wide area, was visited, and the operation from the time the water is pumped from the channel of the Ohio River until it is deposited in a purified state in the huge reservoir on the top of the hill overlooking Millbrook Park, was explained at length by the experienced guide.

One can not remain in company long with Engineer Watson without knowing that Portsmouth's new water works is the last word in water works building. His statements, backed up by twenty years' experience in that particular line of work, indicate that the local plant can not be excelled in any city in the country, and he prophesies that during the coming year it will be the Mecca for various commissions and delegations from cities in the Middle West that are contemplating the erection of a new plant.

Has Watched the Finishing Touches.

For every provision of the several contracts, keeping a watchful eye on the city's interests.

Mr. Watson was sent here about a month ago by Mr. Witmer, plant superintendent, to see the finishing touches. In approaching the building, constantly on the job, witnessing one is impressed with the natural beauty and has at all times in beauty of the surroundings, and the fact that the faithful performance of the attention that was given to the general appearance of the exterior work. While primarily, they were constructed with a view to promote convenience and efficiency of operation, yet appearance was not overlooked in their construction.

The buildings were built of brick of attractive color, and were designed to please the eye. They were finished in attractive colors, and the general contour is pleasing. One feature, which can not be carried out this fall, but which will heighten the effect, will be the landscape gardening which will be undertaken next spring. Abundant provision was made, both at the pumping station and at the filtration plant, to carry out this idea with scarcely no expense.

The initial operation of the plant is carried on within the pumping station, a long, narrow brick building, located to the right of the railroad tracks, about half way between New Boston and the Carlyle paving brick plant. It is a roomy structure, designed to meet the requirements of a city more than twice the size of Portsmouth. Long after able the employees to make the necessary adjustments and repairs from time to time. Contrary to the opinion of many, water will never be pumped into this well, since the pumps have been in position, but they are gradually becoming eroded and the proper adjustments made.

When the plant is formally taken over by the city this department will be in charge of John Herman, chief engineer of the pumping station, and his capable crew who have picked up valuable pointers from the McDowall experts.

Plant Has Latest Improvements.

One of the most striking features in connection with the new pumping station is the arrangement of the different sub-departments, and the attention that has been given to the convenience of the employees and the saving of labor and expense.

For instance, the huge boilers located at the east end of the building are equipped with self-stokers. It will never be necessary for firemen to shovel coal, as the fires are cooled automatically. Only the occasional inspection to see that everything is working smoothly will be required. Arrangements were made for the moving of the ashes and cinders with but little labor and expense.

Coal will be unloaded from the cars on the switch on the south side of the building without any labor, the coal entering the building from a chute leading from the bottom of the car.

An electric crane, of sufficient power to lift the largest piece of machinery in the building, operates on an overhead track that runs the entire length of the building.

Electric power for light and other purposes is generated by a dynamo operating in the building.

The pumping station boasts of an elegant tile floor, which will make it easy for the employees to keep clean and attractive at all times. Sanitary drinking fountains and steam heat are among the accommodations provided for the employees.

Sufficient space is left in front of the building for a roomy grass plot, which will be adorned with flowers and shrubbery next spring.

Water Goes To Settling Basins

From the pumping station the water is forced into the concrete settling basins on the side of the hill north of the New Boston-Fish Pike, where it goes through the natural process of settling without any outside treatment. There are six of these basins, of an aggregate capacity of 2,000,000 gallons, ranged side by side from west to east.

The water enters the basin at the extreme west end, and passes over the top of the concrete partition between Basin No. 1 and No. 2, and through a small opening at the bottom of No. 2 into No. 3, alternating over and under until Basin No. 6 is reached. During all this time, the water is gradually settling, the particles of dirt and matter finding their way to the bottom.

Filtration Process

When it leaves Basin No. 6 it is led into the filtration plant, first entering the coagulating basins, covered with a top of concrete and lying just west of the filtration building proper. Before it enters the coagulating basins it is treated with a chemical process which causes the water to coagulate. This is done by the addition of a small amount of alum. The water is then passed into the settling basins, where it is again treated with a chemical process.

From the coagulating basins, the water enters the large filtration reservoir. The finest gravel and fine cloth in number of a special sand for filtration purposes has been laid in the reservoir, and the water enters from the top. The water enters from the top of the basin, and is filtered through the gravel and cloth. The water is then passed into the settling basins, where it is again treated with a chemical process.

IN THE FILTER CONTROL ROOM

At the filtration plant, Chief Sanitary-Hydraulic Engineer Geo. D. Shute is in complete charge, bearing the same relation to the city's water supply as a physician does to his patient. He is in truth a doctor, watching the water and its properties with the same exacting care as the physician notes the symptoms of his patient.

Have A Fine Laboratory

No finer laboratory can be found in the state of Ohio than the one which Mr. Shute has rigged up in his private office in the west end of the building. Every means of analyzing water and detecting its impurities known to the profession are included in his wonderful assortment of chemicals and equipment.

Here he will be on guard every day of the year watching and testing the city's water supply, and training and practical experience, striving with every means of his to equip him for the job. When there is knowledge to be gained, he holds, and the city need never worry about the water supply so long as it is in his hands. He is one man who has no doubts concerning the purity of the water after the plant is operating properly. The machinery, however, may break down or be defective, but he absolutely guarantees with the filtration plant at the present time. It has the purest water along the Ohio river, or any where in the country for that matter.

Mr. Shute Is The "Right Man"

It was fortunate indeed for the city of Portsmouth that Mr. Shute's services could be secured, since he is one of the best informed men on the subject of water in haps, not so long, the water will have a queer taste, due to the new mains and other new openings through which it will pass in its course. But after that time, the taste should be entirely removed, and the water be ideal for domestic purposes.

As is probably understood, the different operations at the new plant are continuous, going on all the time. While the smaller pumps are drawing the water out of the river and depositing it into the settling basins, the larger pumps are taking the filtered supply and forcing it into the reservoir, and so on, indefinitely, so long as the plant is in operation.

One set of pumps can not be working without the other, at least not longer than it takes to fill the settling basins, or longer than it takes to rid the filtration plant of its fullest capacity when impure water is not being pumped in to take its place.

And now, after years of waiting, the city of Portsmouth will have a water supply the like of which it has dreamed, and disease and pestilence will no longer be traced to an impure water supply.

NEW WATERWORKS

Up The Hill To Reservoir

When the water has passed through the filtration plant, it is in the condition which it will be in when it reaches the consumer. When it leaves the building, it enters the large mains, through which it is pumped by the high force pumps to the top of the big hill which overlooks the plant from the west into the huge reservoir, capable of holding 8,000,000 gallons of water. This is enough to run the entire city a week in times of flood or breakdown, and considerably longer than that period if the commercial supply is shut off. This reservoir is 15 feet deep, 260 feet long, and 250 feet wide, built entirely of reinforced concrete of a thickness over one foot. It is entirely covered on top by a layer of concrete, which absolutely prevents any outside particles from entering the water. This avoids the possibility of dead animals or decayed matter of any kind finding its way into the water supply of the city.

Twenty-five openings are on top, but all but one of them are sealed airtight, and can not be opened. The one is also locked except when it is necessary to get down into the reservoir for any purpose whatsoever. A dozen air vents, extending at intervals from the top, furnish sufficient ventilation for the big tank. These are crooked in goose-neck shape so that nothing could be dropped down into the reservoir through them.

Water Then Goes To The Mains

From the reservoir, the water runs into the mains which lead to the city, the pressure being sufficient to answer any demand to which the water will be put. The mains are all laid, and in operation.

Officials state that for a period of about three months, or per-

WE WILL GIVE YOU A DOLLAR FOR THAT BABY OF YOURS

YOU WOULDN'T TAKE A MILLION DOLLARS for that Blue Eyed, Dimple Cheek Darling that has come to bless your home--and yet our statement at the top of this advertisement can be taken literally, as the following will more fully explain:

We are bidding for Babies to come to our bank. From now on the Portsmouth Banking Co. will start a savings account for every child born in town or county and the BANK WILL PUT IN THE FIRST DOLLAR. All that you then need do is to deposit one dollar for twelve consecutive months, and if you care then to withdraw the account we will give you the twelve dollars you have put in the bank, plus the dollar we placed to the credit of the child at its birth. If the account does not run a year then of course the dollar we deposited remains to our credit.

As is stated in this advertisement a saving of 5 cents per day for twenty years means at three per cent, compound interest $491.48—a dollar saved a day—$7 a week—in a fortune in twenty years—$9,829.25, or practically $10,000.

So we are going to give the babies of Portsmouth a chance at compound interest. Our town is not so very large and we hear of a birth fairly soon. Then the bank sends the father a letter which reads like this: "Dear Sirs:—We understand that you have added another member to your family. We congratulate you and trust the little one will always be a blessing to you and your good wife. We have placed $1.00 to its credit and have opened up an account which will be compounded semi-annually as the account is increased. Kindly call at the bank and secure the baby's passbook—its very own bank book. In a few years by practicing just a little economy that baby of yours will have a big enough account on which to erect a structure that will insure a successful career. As the amount deposited increases the interest will grow accordingly. When the child is a little older it will realize what you have done for it—the saving, frugal habit will be cultivated early in its life, and it will be better fortified, perhaps, in its start toward fame and riches than its parents."

You Owe Your Child A Better Chance Than You Had

We want our children to realize that they can no more build a fortune without the first dollar than they can build a house without the first brick. We want to teach them as they grow old enough to understand what money really is, to make an invariable rule to get the habit of saving. It matters little how small, if it is regular.

The child will be delighted at the end of the year to see how much has been accumulated without being missed. Then as the years roll on and the habit of saving becomes firmly fixed they will have the means to seize the opportunity that surely comes to every man and woman in life.

What Saving Will Do

How many people realize what a saving of 5 cents a day for twenty years means at even 3 per cent compounded semi-annually? It will amount to $491.48—almost $500.00. Suppose the child's father foregoes one cheap cigar a day; his grown-up son or daughter has a competence to start in life.

Food For Thought

Nobody saves in large amounts. Everybody can save in small amounts. Compound interest has made more millions than speculation.

As the late J. Pierpont Morgan, the master of finance, said: "A small bank account pays a large dividend socially in addition to its steady financial returns."

What interesting story, what play for imagination, is there in the gathering of that immense sum in our vaults!

It seems hardly more than yesterday that the Central began business, for the day it first opened its doors was June 5th, 1893, but 21 years ago, less than a generation. It had a modest, we can as well say a small beginning. Its capital stock was only $30,000, little even for a bank in those days, when not the finest optimist in all the town saw the time when a Portsmouth bank would have assets of a million. Its business, its patronage, was, of course, all to come. And it did come. Not with a rush and all at once, but slowly, steadily, surely, with a constantly and continuously expanding volume, just as the reputation of the bank for integrity, safety and solidity grew and spread.

Long before the principle was carved into a catch phrase, this bank practiced "safety first." It held staunchly to the interests of its depositors. It kept their money safe, well knowing that this was the best way in which it could promote their interests and the interests of its patrons.

A bank, however, but administers to half the interests of its patrons when it keeps their money secure; to the full measure of its creation it should loan money securely. Money is the life blood of community existence and it is only when it circulates through right and proper channels that the communal body is healthy and strong. A bank is the heart that must send this blood circulating and throbbing, vitalizing labor, trade, industry. Both of these things the Central has done. It has held the money of its depositors safe against any loss whatsoever; many an honest man it has helped out of a pinch by a timely loan; many a striving industry it has promoted to success by supplying it with needful capital and thus been the means of furnishing employment for labor.

But let us in imagination turn that million dollars into single dollars and let fancy play with them for awhile.

If They Were Silver Dollars They Would Weigh More Than 66,300 Pounds

It would take 15 wagons to haul them from one place to another at the same time. If you could count and stack them at the rate of 100 a minute it would take you three full weeks to verify the count. If you made one stack of them all they would make a pyramid one mile, 3560 feet high. If you printed the whole sum in one dollar bills and laid them end to end they would make a string that would reach from Portsmouth to 20 miles beyond Columbus. They would weigh 5300 pounds and make a load each for forty men.

All these dollars, we say, the Central has to keep accurately, safe and profitably and that it does so is proven by the fact that this great federal government of ours holds close watch upon it and with frequent examinations checks up against any inaccuracy or irregularity.

Yes, all this and more the Central does

It encourages the people to saving and thrift, the finest of all insurance for the comfort of the individual and the prosperity of a community. It does this by accepting savings deposits in sums as small as a dollar and allowing thereon a substantial interest, which is compounded three times a year. Oh, a dollar is such a little thing, you say. Yes, we'll admit it is, in one way, but in another it is the big, potent thing of life and future. You save a dollar and there's the rub, saving the first dollar. But having saved it it looks so small that you say it is easy to add another dollar. Then you do add another and then another. Soon it becomes easy to save a dollar because you have contracted the habit of saving, the surest way of all to make money and as the years creep on you find you have a goodly store laid by against old age and the days when your earning capacity is gone.

Come to the Korn Karnival. Drop in on us any time. We'll always be glad to see you and show you one of the most handsomely appointed banks in the country.

STEINKAMP'S EASY PAYMENT ARRANGEMENT is as far in advance of the old-fashioned installment idea as the MODERN PULLMAN PALACE CAR is in advance of the PRIMITIVE STAGE COACH OF FRONTIER DAYS. We are not entering to the class of trade that wants to buy $50.00 or $100.00 worth of goods for 25c a week and then sell our goods at a criminal profit to cover. We ARE interested in and are especially catering to the honest wage earner and home lover who, even though he can't pay cash, is prompt with his weekly or monthly payments except when prevented by sickness or other adversity. The spot cash purchaser is, of course, entitled to a small discount. That's business. ### FIRST STEAM LOCOMOTIVE WILL TRAVERSE STREETS

The first steam locomotive that proudly reared its head and steamed its triumphant way into the nation's capital, Washington, D. C., back in 1832, and which was called the Atlantic, is going to be an object of great curiosity during the Korn Carnival.

Permission was obtained from President L. D. York of the street railway company Thursday for the use of his trucks and the Atlantic will be placed on them and operated on Chillicothe and Second streets.

The relic of the ante-bellum days will be exhibited in all its glory. This ante-bellum mechanical wonder, which in its day attracted as much attention as the ponderous and smooth running Mallet does now is sure to receive more than its quota of attention.

The very fact that the first locomotive ever assembled in this country will be operated up and down the business streets of this city is sure to have an especial appeal to those whose minds turn to things of a mechanical hue.

The Atlantic was exhibited at the Fall Festival in Chillicothe and was really one of the most interesting things exhibited during this big show.

Lauritzen Land Co. Establishes Offices

The Lauritzen Land Co., whose half page ad, appears in today's issue of The Times, has fitted up an office at No. 906 Gallia street, next to Horr Bros., for the sale of lots in a new addition to the city of Astoria, Oregon. The office will be in charge of C. O. Lauritzen and W. R. Kinney, who for years have been associated together in business in Oregon. Mr. Lauritzen is the gentleman who superintended the platting of Mrs. W. R. Kinney's farm on the Chillicothe pike last spring, which, as the Riverview Addition, was so successfully handled by the H. A. Bierley Realty Co. Mr. Lauritzen was so favorably impressed with Portsmouth on his last trip here, that he is thinking very favorably of making this city his headquarters for some time to come. The company's ad, in today's issue, tells about Astoria and the Pacific Coast in general and makes very interesting reading.

WEARING BIG LEAGUE AIRS, NICK IS BACK

Looking like a real big leaguer, Nick Carter, erstwhile Shoemaker, who finished the season with the Cleveland Naps, arrived in Portsmouth Thursday afternoon for a short visit with his friends in this city before proceeding to his home in Lake Park, Georgia, for the winter. Carter feels confident after three weeks in the big show that he has the goods to stick next season, and claims that he will earn a regular berth with the Naps next year. He will join the Naps at the training camp in San Antonio, Texas, next spring. The Cleveland club closes the season Sunday in Detroit, and only fifteen players were taken on the trip.

STUDEBAKER dealers everywhere are of the progressive, prosperous and permanent type of business men.

They enjoy steady business day in and day out, year in and year out.

They are not in the motor car business today and some other line of business tomorrow.

They know motor car values and the ins-and-outs of the business.

That is why they are Studebaker dealers.

Studebaker cars are manufactured practically complete in Studebaker plants.

The Studebaker organization, is we believe, the most efficient unit in the entire motor car industry.

Its co-operation with Studebaker dealers along the line of sales, of service and of advertising is broader in its scope and more helpful in character than is the co-operation enjoyed by any other class of dealers.

That is why Studebaker dealers are invariably successful dealers.

That is why Studebaker territory is at a premium.

That is why there is in many parts of the country an actual waiting list of responsible dealers anxious to secure Studebaker representation. Many divisions and subdivisions of territory are being made in various parts of the country making a few very desirable openings for responsible dealer connections.

Dealers visiting Detroit are cordially invited to inspect the Studebaker plants and investigate Studebaker Manufacturing and sales methods.

DMB SAGE TEA IN HAIR TO DARKEN IT

Grandma kept her locks dark, glossy, thick with a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

The old-time mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur for darkening gray, streaked and faded hair is grandmother's treatment, and it is again using it to keep their hair a good, even color, which is quite sensible, as we are living in an age when a youthful appearance is of the greatest advantage.

Nowadays, though, we don't have the troublesome task of gathering the sage and the mint, mixing at home. All true stores sell the ready-to-use product called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" for about 20 cents a bottle. It is very popular because nobody can discover it has been applied. Simply wash your comb or a soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also produces that soft, healthy appearance of abundance which is so attractive. It dries, prevents dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair.

ALL JOHNS ARE ELIGIBLE IN THE JOHN PARADE; JUST DROP AROUND AND GET IN

Many Johns do not seem to know "where they are at" in the parade. Do not wait for it to get one or the other, or all, of the John prizes. This is an inducement for any old John, young John, good-looking or ugly John, in all this neck of the woods to be on hand.

A number of automobiles have been kindly tendered for the use of the old Johns, not for the young Johns who are too lazy to walk, and it might be that a few more will be needed, so those who would like to stand in with the Johns are invited to tender the use of their machines upon the aforesaid notable occasion, Friday, October 9, at 7 p. m.

Now, John, tell all the Johns that there is no discrimination to be made as to Johns. All Johns will look alike that evening, so get ready and "line in" with the Johns and have some fun and let the fellows and the girls on the curb laugh if they want to.

Haldeman and Russell Baker designed the booth.

ENGLISH WAR POEMS

Here is a sample of English war poetry as it appears in English papers:

THE HOUR.

We've shut the gates by Dover Straits, And North, where the tides run free.

Check by jewel, our watchdogs growl, Grey hulks in a greyer sea.

And the prayer that England prays tonight— O Lord of our destiny!—

As the foam of our plunging prow, it whistles

We have stood for peace, and we war for right.

God give us victory! Now slack, now strong, from the mainmast flung.

The flag throbs fast in the breeze; Strained o'er the foam, like the beats at home. That beat for their sons on the sea. For mothers and wives are praying tonight— O Lord of our destiny!—

But we've no time for our lips are tight.

Our fists are clenched, and we're stripped to fight

God give us victory!

The west winds blow in the face of the foe— Old Drake is beating his drum— They drink to "The Day" for "The Hour" we pray. The day and the hour have come. The sea-strewn Empire prays to-night—

O Lord of our destiny!— Thou didst give the seas into Britain's night.

For the freedom of Thy seas we smile.

God give us victory!

JAMES BERNARD FAGAN. From the London Times— Now in thy splendour go before us.

Spirit of England, ardent-eyed! Enkindle this dear earth that bore us.

In the hour of peril purified.

The eaves we hugged drop out of vision. Our hearts with deeper thoughts dilate.

We step from days of sour division Into the grandeur of our fate.

For us the glorious dead have striven: They battle that we might be free.

We to that living cause are given. We arm for men that are to be.

Among the nations noblest chartered, England recalls her heritage.

With her is that which is not bartered, Which force can neither quell nor cage.

For her immortal stars are burning. With her, the hope that's never done.

The seed that's in the Spring's returning. The very flower that seeks the sun.

We fight the fraud that feeds desire on Lies, in a lust to enslave or kill.

The barren greed of blood and iron. Vampires of Europe's wasted will.

Endure, O Earth! and then awaken. Purged by this dreadful winnowing fan.

O wrought untamable, unshaten Soul of divine suffering man!

LAWRENCE BANYON.

UNIQUE BOOTHS TO BE FEATURE

There is nothing in uniformity that makes for real attractiveness in booth building.

That is one reason why the booths of the Korn Carnival, which are to be of many and varied patterns will be admired by the visitors.

They will not have the red, white and blue top attached to them. They will be built along different lines.

There will be no two alike a note of originality being sounded in their construction. This provides for a certain uniqueness which is sure to result in the booths being much admired.

The roof designs according to the builders will be of an original pattern. Many will have bell shaped roofs that will stand out individually. Many will have gabled roofs that are always at tractive. Many will be equipped with small illuminated roofs that will be pleasing to the discriminating eye. In the way of booths Portsmouth is almost certain to establish a high water mark for attractiveness and originality. There will not be the sameness to them as was in evidence in Ironton and Chillicothe.

The Valve-in-Head Motor Car!

Buick

Supreme in Speed, Power and Dependability

SPEED, power and dependability go hand in hand; you cannot have one without the other. These attributes and fuel economy are the important requisites of all motor cars. The first of these four factors in a successful motor is dependability, and it covers a broad field.

It means the motor must be able to withstand enormous strains and shocks, high temperatures caused by sustained speeds during a long run or race, for a race requires an engine designed to let the gases in and out of the cylinder with the least amount of energy wasted in useless heating. Such a motor is the Valve-in-Head type, the motor that has been standard in all Buick cars for the past twelve seasons.

The Buick line of four and sixes for nineteen fifteen comprises five models built on three chassis (all have Valve-in-Head motors) and while the same characteristics and features are largely general in the construction of each, yet enough variation is provided to satisfy the requirements of every buyer, and give him the choice of a Buick to fit his individual needs in either the four or six cylinder.

All of these elements required in a small car have been adequately provided and all of the features that have made Buick cars famous in the past are embodied in this season's model. These features, with their complete Delco electric starting, lighting and ignition systems, and their new stream line bodies, make the most graceful, powerful small car on the market. No richer efficiency or more refinement of detail can be found in any car of this type of any price. Both of these light four-cylinder models are built for heavy duty—constant driving in town or country under any and all conditions.

These two famous Buick models represent the highest type of small car construction. Sturdy, graceful and reliable, with all the power required for any purpose, easy to operate, economical in upkeep, are intended to meet the demands of business or pleasure. A compact, full sized car is desired.

PORTSMOUTH THE HOME OF VARIED INDUSTRIES

Diversified interests is what makes a prosperous and growing city and that is what has made Portsmouth the industrial center of southern Ohio. The citizens of Portsmouth are proud of the industrial institutions that have made it possible for the Peerless City to outstrip its neighboring cities in financial and commercial supremacy, and the sense of pride will be pointed in the direction before the thousands of visitors who will be entertained here during Carnival week.

A small portion of the credit goes to the thousands of sober, hard-working, intelligent class of wage earners forming the greater part of the city's population and one who are equally with the men who have directed the destinies of the city, the thousands of men in the mills and shops who have made the city a place of steady growth and prosperity for years to come.

Look at The Factories We Have.

The following figures will give you some idea of the extent of Portsmouth's industrial activity:

Shoe factories turn out 18,000 pairs of shoes daily.

Brick plants make 375,000 bricks daily.

Steel mills produce 1,000 tons of galvanized sheets, plates, and billets.

Foundries manufacture 10,000 castings daily.

Terminals and shipyards employ 1,000 men.

Skilled mechanics and factory workers make 1,000 pairs of shoes daily.

others small, which dump their products into the daily output of the city, and in the aggregate employ hundreds of men and women whose combined wages swell the pay rolls of the city to hundreds of thousands of dollars every month.

Time was when the shoe factories of the city represented practically its sole industry, and that was at a time when none of them had attained the growth and prosperity which they now enjoy. But with the development of the city came other industries, which have taken front rank in the list of institutions which keep the wheels of progress moving.

But the development of the shoe industry has ever, and always will be, closely identified with the development of the city as a whole, and the two are so closely linked that the one seems almost dependent on the other.

Three Huge Shoe Factories.

Portsmouth boasts of three mammoth shoe factories, with a capacity of 18,000 pairs daily and giving employment to about 4000 men and women.

One of the most satisfying features in connection with the operation of these three factories is the fact that they are manned, almost entirely from the ranks of the city's own people.

The pioneer of them all is the Sells Shoe company, which in a period of thirty years, has grown from an infant industry to a mammoth institution, covering over a city block and giving employment to over 2,000 men and women.

Up Goes Another Model Factory.

The year 1914 marked the biggest step forward in the history of the Excelsior Shoe company, when its plant was moved from its leased quarters at Gallia and Bond streets, to its magnificent factory building at Gallia and Campbell avenue, one of the finest plants in the entire country. Over 1200 employees are at work in this big plant, the capacity of which is constantly on the increase.

Two plants, each of which in itself is a pretentious structure, are operated by the Irving Drow Company, the growth of which during the past ten years has been nothing short of phenomenal. During the past year, the company was forced to build a large addition to its Tenth street plant, exceeding in amount of floor space the original factory. Nearly 1,500 people are employed in both plants.

The products of these three plants go to every state in the union and every civilized nation on the globe. Their trade name and reputation for honorable dealing are worth more than their tangible assets.

Wonderful impetus to the city's growth was given ten years ago when the Norfolk and Western Railroad company located its immense terminals and shops in this city. Today there stands large machine shops and miles of track, where formerly was nothing but an open field. Employment is furnished an army of skilled mechanics, while Portsmouth is the home of the horse of trainmen who pilot the passenger and freight trains over the different divisions of the road.

The Portsmouth Steel Company's plant, one of the largest independent mills of its kind in the country, is another potent factor in the city's industrial well-being. During the past five years, it has more than doubled in size and capacity, and today gives employment to upwards of 1,500 men, some of them the highest paid wage earners in the city. Its semi-monthly pay day is a healthy stimulant for the retail trade, while the thrift of its employees has meant for the development of real estate and property values all over the city.

Brick making is another industry which has earned Portsmouth's fame throughout the country, the quality of its product taking a front rank wherever it is sold. The city's miles of paved streets testify to the durability of its paving brick, while the reputation of its fire brick and building brick is known far and wide.

Among the companies which are enjoying substantial growth are The Peabbles Paving Brick company, The Harrison Walker Refractories company, The Portsmouth Granite Brick company, The Portsmouth Paving Brick company, The Carlyle Paving Brick company, The Seinto Fire Brick company, and the Gistay H. Heinrich Brick company. Together, they give employment to hundreds of men, and the aggregate payrolls in a year's time total hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Two large and successful stove foundries with established trade and years of square dealing to back their product are operated in the city, the Portsmouth Stove and Range company, and the Ohio Stove company, both employing a large force of men.

Three large institutions, which furnish material for the shoe factories in the city and whose growth follows in the wake of those factories are the Mitchell Manufacturing company, recently moved into their elegant and commodious new home, manufacturers of shoe laces, neck ties, braids, and knitting. The Valen last company, a comparatively new company but a substantial one, and the T. M. Patterson Box factory, one of the pioneer industries of the city, manufacturers of shoe boxes.

Another new industry well out of the infant class is the Portsmouth Univer company, located near the steel plant, and enjoying unusual prosperity.

Two furniture factories, the Brocken Manufacturing company, and the Wait Furniture company, belong in the list of successful industries which are spreading the fame of Portsmouth as a manufacturing center broadest over the land.

To the above could be enumerated three carriage factories, coal mills, seven planing mills, three stone quarries, one stone saw mill, novelty factory, three machine works, three ice factories, and scores of smaller factories which add their mile to the steady and substantial stream of wealth which is constantly pouring forth within the city.

Two hundred and two traveling salesmen sell Portsmouth products on the road, every one of them a booster for the Peerless City.

Transportation plays an important part in the city's industrial welfare, and in this regard is singularly fortunate. It is located on three railroads, the Norfolk and Western, The Chesapeake and Ohio, and the Baltimore and Ohio South-Western, to say nothing of the Ohio River, which will be looked and dammed within the next five years, making the river navigable the whole year 'round.

The coming year will mark the completion of an interurban line to Fronton, and the beginning of the construction of the new Chesapeake and Ohio Northern railroad from Portsmouth to Columbus.

Twenty-five miles of paved streets are located in the city, and fifteen miles of street car lines. In less than a year, a double track will be completed from Portsmouth to New Boston, insuring uninterrupted traffic between the city and its neighboring village.

All of which combined makes Portsmouth the foremost city in Southern Ohio, and insures its steady growth and prosperity for years to come.

Gave Demonstration Many New Homes In The East End For The East End

The L. T. L. under the direction of their superintendent, Mrs. Herbert Boring, marched through the streets of the East End Thursday evening singing songs and giving their yells. They met at Manly church at 6:30 o'clock and went through their drills, and marches with an enthusiasm that showed them to be true blue young campaigners for prohibition. After the parade they returned to the basement of Manly church where they were treated to ice cream and cake.

There is very little sickness in the East End at the present time, the city and only two of these. According to Dr. W. W. Smith, there are eight cases of diphtheria in the city.

PORTSMOUTH'S PRIDE IS IN HER SCHOOLS AND EDUCATIONAL WORK

Portsmouth's pride has always pointed its finger at the schools—its temples of learning.

Perhaps no city in Ohio has a better class of school buildings than Portsmouth. And longer Labor Day has had the buildings

The "Russian" a Strong Influence In The Fall Styles

THE man's figure is of a Circassian in the peculiar dress these people of Southern Russia habitually wear.

The church in the background is "The Resurrection of Christ Cathedral" at St. Petersburg, erected as a memorial to Emperor Alexander II and encloses the stone pavement stained with the blood of this monarch who was assassinated in 1881.

We present on this page, not only one of the most timely, but perhaps the most important, and certainly the most interesting, of the latest fashion trends. That "Paris sets the style for the world" is an oft-repeated statement, but the fashion trends of Paris have never been so clearly defined as they are now.

DON'T FAIL TO VISIT THE EAST END METROPOLIS

See Those Model Factories, Splendid Stores And Homes

Korn Carnival visitors from far and wide leave the city of Portsmouth without taking at least one trip through the East End of the city will have deprived themselves of much that would have been interesting and profitable for no small part of the industrial and commercial activity of this thriving municipality is daily transacted in that expanse of territory located east of Offshore street.

In truth, the East End is a city in itself, and were they so attracted by selfish interests, the residents of that section could transact practically all of their business and find an outlet for their pleasurable desires right at home without penetrating the downtown business district.

The trend of the phenomenal growth of the city during the past ten years has been eastward, and the fore-sighted business men in that section of the city prepared to meet the demands that were sure to follow the development of that territory.

The past year has seen some wonderful improvements in the East End, and like Aladdin's castle, they seemed to have grown over night. Chief among these could be mentioned the splendid new factory of the Excelsior shoe company, located at Gallia street ment market; the Blake block across the street, the home of the pioneer drug store of the East End, Flood and Blake, in which is located a sub-postal station; John Kyle's new drug store on Lawson street; the Mechanics' Steam Laundry on Robinson avenue, and numerous others.

A little to the south, at Sixth and Offshore streets, is the magnificent new home of the Bierley and Yeley Dry Cleaning Company, now practically completed, and a monument to the two energetic young men who have developed the business from a small beginning.

Among the large and varied industrial institutions of which the East End boasts, employing an aggregate of thousands of men and women, are the Excelsior Shoe Company; the Irving Drew Shoe Company; the Harbison-Walker Refractories Company; the Portsmouth Stove and Range Company; Simpson Brothers, machinists; the Pure Milk Company; the Bierley and Yeley Dry Cleaning Company; the Mechanics' Steam Laundry, and numerous other smaller ones. Another plant of large proportions is the plant of the River City Lumber Company, located at Tenth and Lincoln streets. The L. L. Webb Lumber Co., located on East Gallia street, is one of the most thriving industries in the growing East End.

There are also two fine flour mills, the Harcha and Coburn mills.

Further east, just outside the East End business district, is located the immense shops, terminals and yards of the Norfolk and Western Railroad Company, giving employment to thousands of men, while continuing further east in order are located the Peoples Paving Brick Company, the Broese Manufacturing Company, and the Watt Furniture Company, all big institutions, closely allied with the city's prosperity and growth. The big plant of the Portsmouth Steel Company looms up in the distant horizon, one of the largest, independent steel plants in the Middle West.

The beautiful residential sections of the eastern part of the city should not be overlooked, for nowhere in the city has the development of real estate been more pronounced in the past ten years. Korn Carnival visitors, visit

Fell Off Street Car, Boy's Arm Broken

Raymond Justice, a young son of Peter Justice, of 1316 High street, had the misfortune to fall from a street car at Eleventh and Lawson streets Thursday afternoon about four o'clock. The car was still moving when the lad tried to alight, his body hitting the paved street with much force. He was carried to John Kyle's pharmacy where he was given first aid by Mr. Kyle. Dr. Albert Berndt, the street railway company physician, was called to set the bones. Both bones of the lad's left arm were broken.

Dr. Berndt moved the boy to his home.

"It's so good to look at and so much better to cook on," continued Mrs. Smith, "that it makes me proud every time I show my kitchen."

"I wouldn't have believed that just having the ovens elevated at the side—Cabinet Style they call it—would have made my cooking so much easier, but now I'd never go back to that old back-breaking, low-oven stove."

"And the glass oven door, Oh, it's such a pleasure to watch things bake to just the right brown. And besides, this is the only really perfect oven I ever heard of. Everything I bake comes out a beautiful even brown on top, sides, and bottom. I tell you it's a joy!"

"Then too, you see these high legs make it so much easier to sweep under, and the aluminum finish and smooth castings make it so easy to clean, that I can't help being a bit enthusiastic about this stove."
